Dressing in KIMONOs

1

1. We dress you with a NAGAJIBAN (under kimono garment worn over your clothes)

2

2. The KIMONO itself

3

3. 1) The Kimono doesn't have any buttons, sashes are used to hold the Kimono in its place.

3. 2) The back of the collar is draped open (one of the secrets of Kimono beauty)

4

4. Next, tie OBI sash round

5

5. Tie a gorgeous Obi decoration, there are many different styles used accordingly for the situation.

6. Tie the OBIDOME to hold OBI, some knots are used depending on the wearers age and or occasion.

7. We can adjust the length of Kimonos by tucking down this OHASHORI part.

8. The finishing touches

9. Completed !

Please take pictures. Don't forget the beautiful back figure, too.
